

LADY TAVERNERS PRESIDENT WINS LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

12-Nov-2009

Rachael Heyhoe Flint, President of The Lady Taverners, was awarded the CCPR Lifetime Achievement Award during the Sunday Times Sportswomen of the Year awards on 3 November. Rachael is one of the most famous female cricketers in England, representing her country for 22 years and captaining the side between 1966 and 1978.

During Rachael's time as captain England were unbeaten in six Test series and won the Women's World Cup in 1973. She currently holds the world record of batting for eight and a half hours, scoring her career best of 176 against Australia at the Oval, and was also the first female to score a six in Test cricket.

Rachael has been President of The Lady Taverners for the past eight years, helping to raise more than £7.5m for youngsters with special needs, and ten years ago she became an honorary member of the MCC.
