"Johnners"

In the name of Johnners, the Trust is dedicated to discover and develop the talents of our most promising young cricketers particularly those whose opportunities would otherwise be restricted by a lack of facilities or financial resources.

Trust Benefactors

"He was a man who enjoyed life hugely and shared that enjoyment with millions. Summers will not be the same again."

The Rt Hon Sir John Major, KG, CH

"This Trust reflects Brian's love of England and of all people, and I am delighted to be its Patron."

The late Sir Paul Getty KBE

"Brian always broadcast the fun of cricket into millions of homes. One of the aims of this Trust is to restore Britain's enjoyment and pride in our national game."

The late Lord Cowdrey CBE

"One of Brian's characteristics was his infectious optimism. His ideals and spirit will live on in this Trust."

Johnners and the Trust

Brian's 48 years of broadcasting, his passion for England and its great national sport of cricket along with his irrepressible sense of fun brought him into the hearts and minds of millions of people worldwide. As a memorial, his family together with many eminent members of the cricketing and broadcasting world decided that a Trust Fund should be set up to further the causes that were close to Brian's heart.

The Brian Johnston Memorial Trust, which is a registered charity, was launched in the Long Room at Lord's in May 1995. In December 1999 the Trust joined forces with the Lord's Taverners and is now based at 90 Chancery Lane, London WC2A 1EU.

The Objectives

Brian Johnston Scholarships

To assist promising young cricketers in need of financial support to achieve their potential and further their development towards County and National representation.

BJMT / ECB Elite Spin Programme

The Trust currently part funds the ECB Elite Spin Programme in its attempts to improve the standard of spin bowling at County Academy and University level.

Cricket for the blind

Johnners became the eyes for thousands of people affected with visual impairment. The Trust supports visually impaired and blind cricketers

The Johnners Club

Membership of the Club is offered to individuals and companies who wish to support the Trust's objectives. It entitles members to wear the distinctive Johnners tie or ladies scarf, receive newsletters and obtain priority bookings for the Annual Dinner at Lord's, as well as access to Test Matches and other bia matches at Lord's. The Lord's Taverners also offer Johnners Club members the opportunity to attend their events if you so wish. There are currently two types of Johnners Club Members. The first is Life Membership for which we ask you to make a donation of a minimum of £1,000. Standard membership costs £50 per annum.
