Complete pages 1-7 of the Volunteer Journal prior to assisting at a competition.* Display a working level of the skills and behaviours outlined within the curriculum during the training stage. Attend competition. Undertake at least one leadership role at the competition (umpire, scorer, buddy). Once the leadership role has been undertaken at the competition, complete page 8 of the Volunteer Journal. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Deliver training stage with volunteers prior to event. Using the supplied activity resources (or own activities) deliver the training phase to allow volunteers to develop the leadership skills required to assist in leading at the competitions. Must deliver the role specific activities as outlined in the supplied resources. Decide on which volunteers show enough competency during the training stage to progress onto volunteering at an event (see curriculum for more guidance) - there is no expectation for a volunteer to undertake a role if it's not suitable. Take volunteers to a competition. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Supervise the running of the table cricket competition. Supervise the volunteers in their roles at the competition. Assess the volunteer's skills and behaviours displayed during the competition. Complete the feedback form in the Volunteer Journal for each volunteer (page 9). Use the guidance on page 10 of the Volunteer Journal to award the volunteer either a Bronze, Silver or Gold status. Pick out 2 volunteers from each county competition to volunteer at the next competition.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Oversee the table cricket game Understand the rules of table cricket Enforce the rules and regulations of the game 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understand the scoring for table cricket Keep score during a table cricket game Complete the score card throughout the game 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Supports the team in competition Assists the team in scheduling of play (ensuring they know where and when they are playing) Encourage and motivate the participants

* Where possible, the Volunteer Journal should be completed by the volunteer. However, there is an element of flexibility if the volunteer is not able to complete this. Where this situation occurs reasonable adjustments can be made and the volunteer can show their evidence in different ways, eg: poster paper discussion, verbal recording etc.

 Higher level accolades for volunteers are also available at the discretion of Supervisors or other Lord's Taverners staff. A Platinum level could be awarded to volunteers who display an excellent level of competence and enthusiasm or for those who return for a second year of volunteering. For those volunteers who return for a third year of volunteering, they may become a Senior Sports Leader.
